Talk 2 - Friendship

Everyone needs a friend

Jonathan, King David's uncle, was a skilful adviser and a scholar. He and Jehiel son of Hachmoni were in charge of the education of the king's sons. Ahithophel was adviser to the king, and Hushai the Archite was the king's friend and confidante.

Joab was commander of the royal army.

The example of Jesus

I no longer call you servants, because a servant does not know his master's business. Instead, I have called you friends, for everything that I learned from my Father I have made known to you. John 15:15

The example of Jesus

Early in the morning, Jesus stood on the shore, but the disciples did not realise that it was Jesus.

He called out to them, “Friends, haven’t you any fish?”

“No,” they answered.

He said, “Throw your net on the right side of the boat and you will find some.”

When they did, they were unable to haul the net in because of the large number of fish.

John 21:4-6

The example of Jesus

When they landed, they saw a fire of burning coals there with fish on it, and some bread.

Jesus said to them, “Bring some of the fish you have just caught [and] come and have breakfast.”

None of the disciples dared ask him, “Who are you? ”

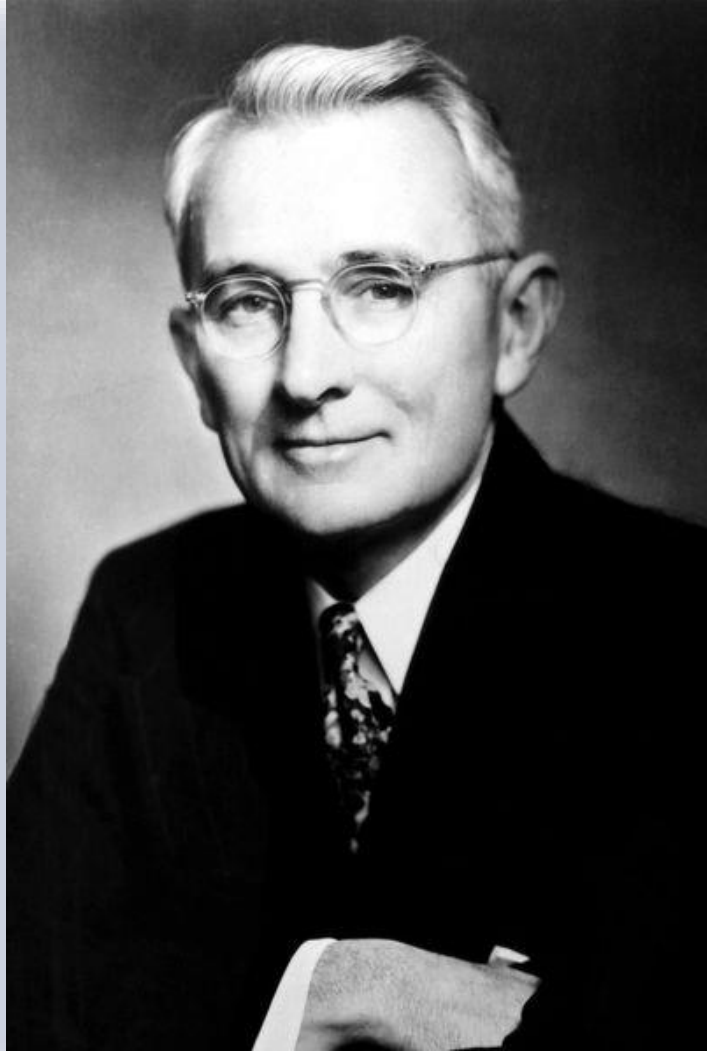

They knew it was the Lord.

John 21:9-10, 12

Show genuine interest

‘You can make more friends in two months by becoming interested in other people than you can in two years by trying to get other people interested in you.’
